Not Alive!

All living things need air, water, and food.

Living things grow.

Some of these things are not alive.

Color the things on this page that are not alive.

Name _____

Use with page 10.

A Place to Belong

Every animal lives in a place with other plants and animals. This is called a habitat.

There are many different kinds of habitats all over the world. Help Meg figure out which habitat is right for the animals she drew. Draw each of her animals into the right habitat on the next page.
